Accelerator and Particle Physics Institute

APPI 2004

February 16 - 20, 2004

Hotel Appi Grand, Iwate, Japan

The 9th Accelerator and Particle Physics Institute (APPI 2004) will be held at the Hotel Appi Grand. Appi highland is a beautiful snow area located near the north end of Honshu. Not only accelerators and elementary particle physics but also various other topics will be covered. We wish many people will participate in this institute.

Organizer: Yoshiaki Fujii

Secretary: Reiko Yahata
